For Immediate Release

The Itasca School District 10 Board of education (School Board) is pleased to announce that Casey Amayun and Thomas Poulakidas have been appointed to fill the two vacancies on the Board. They took the official oath of office at a Special School Board meeting on July 11, 2016. The vacant seats that Casey and Thomas filled are up for election in April 2017.

Casey Amayun has extensive professional experience in early childhood education. She is a graduate of the Erickson Institute and has served in several leadership positions, including Collaboration Director for Elgin Partnerships for Early Learning and as a Board Member for Educare of West DuPage. Casey and her husband are the proud parent of two preschoolers.

Tom Poulakidas has served Itasca as a 17 year member of the Itasca Police Department where he currently serves as a Watch Commander. He has worked extensively with the Itasca Schools in leading safety drills and is also a graduate of Illinois State University with a major in Criminal Justice. His wife, Adrienne is a long term Itasca resident and they are the proud parents of three children.

Both candidates look forward to serving the Itasca community. They are eager to work with fellow school board members and Superintendent Benes to continue with Itasca District 10 Board of Education goals for academic excellence, fiscal responsibility, strong community relationships, student safety and exemplary professional learning.
