

A Note From First Grade

This week, (Week 24), we will start our fourth reading book, Time Together with the story, "A Bed Full of Cats". Next week, (Week 25), our story is "Me On The Map". Some skills we are working on are:

- Names of Holidays
- Using I and Me

WORD WALL/READING WORDS:

Week 24: also, know, moved, only, room, should, those, write, anything

Week 25: country, Earth, special, over, town, world

SPELLING WORDS:

Week 24: me, mean, bean, be, beet, feet, low, road, who, door

Week 25: came, game, gate, late, lake, take, feet, me, know, also

In our math unit, we are finishing chapter 10 and moving on to chapter 11. In chapter 11, we will be working on subtracting with tens and ones.

In health, the students are learning about the inside of a tooth and how to keep their teeth clean and healthy. We have many tooth projects going on in the rooms.

Students will soon be bringing home an animal book and a report form. Your child will check out an animal book from the library during the week of February 27th. The report will be due back to school by March 9th. We will be using these reports to create a project for Celebration of Learning.
