

Project Prevent Press

Volume 15, Issue 2

October 2016

Benson's K-2 Reading Program

Just a few little notes:

- You may have noticed that your child is no longer bringing home cut-up sentences. Once a child has mastered the concept of one-to-one correspondence, he/she will no longer be bringing home the cut-up sentences.
- Everyone is working very hard to remember sight words. Our word rings are growing quickly.
- Remember, when your child is reading to you, be sure they are pointing to the word they are reading. This is one-to-one correspondence.
- Make sure to listen to your child read the book coming home every night. The kids are very excited to share with you!

Any Questions? Contact us...

Miss Jan Blew
Mrs. Karen Capone
Mrs. Chris Collins

(630)773-0554

Just For Fun... read these stories about Halloween

Froggy's Halloween, by Jonathan London.

Franklin's Halloween, by Paulette Bourgeois.

The Halloween Play, by Felicia Bond.

Books and Bags Just a reminder...

Don't forget to help your child remember to bring back his/her books and bags each day! This helps teach responsibility and work towards a reward.

Project Prevent is partially funded by a federal grant.